

SEAGULL ENVIRONMENTAL TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

Client / Program	Period	Scope of Services
EPA Region 2 FRP Technical Support	2013 - 2016	Under this contract, Under this contract, Seagull will conduct plan reviews and inspections of FRP facilities located in New York, New Jersey, Puerto Rico, and U.S. Virgin Islands.
EPA Region 3 START III (Subcontractor)	2005 - 2010	Under the EPA Superfund Technical Assessment and Response Team (START) contracts, Seagull provides technical support to EPA with emergency responses, terrorist attacks, natural disasters, and incidents involving releases of chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear (CBRN) agents, under authority of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA) and Oil Pollution Act (OPA); conducts environmental site assessments, including targeted Brownfields assessments (TBA), removal site evaluations (RSE), integrated site assessments (ISA), preliminary assessments (PA), site inspections (SI), expanded site inspections (ESI), Hazard Ranking System (HRS) documentation packages, and remedial investigations (RI); provides oversight of removal actions; assists with preparedness and prevention activities; and provides other technical support, including risk assessments, engineering evaluations and cost analyses, community involvement activities, information technology support, pilot studies, treatability studies, and groundwater contamination investigations.
EPA Region 4 START III (Subcontractor)	2005 - 2013
EPA Region 5 START IV (Subcontractor)	2013 - 2019
EPA Region 7 START II, III, and IV (Subcontractor)	2000 - 2018
EPA Region 7 mini-START I and II (Prime Contractor)	2009 - 2015
EPA Region 7 TA I & II (Subcontractor)	1999 - 2005
EPA Region 8 PP I & II (Subcontractor)	2000-2010
EPA Region 8 START Carve-Out (Prime Contractor)	2011 - 2015
EPA Region 5 STAT (Prime Contractor)	2010-2013	Under the EPA Region 5 Superfund Technical Assistance Team (STAT) contract, Seagull provides technical support to EPA with environmental sampling and survey activities at Superfund sites, and fish sampling activities.
EPA ERT (Subcontractor)	2008 – 2016 2017 – 2021	Under the EPA Environmental Response Training Program (ERTP), Seagull professionals provide assistance with development and delivery of environmental response training and exercises to various federal, state, and local agencies.
USACE Northwestern District, HTRW (Subcontractor)	2008 - 2013	Under the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) Northwestern District, Hazardous, Toxic, and Radioactive Waste (HTRW) contract, Seagull professionals provide architecture and engineering services, conduct environmental assessments, and remediation.
Missouri Environmental Assessment Services (Prime Contractor)	2012 – 2017 2017 - 2022	Under this contract, Seagull provides technical support to the State of Missouri with Phase I and II targeted brownfield assessments, in accordance with American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) protocols.
Various State Homeland Security and Technical Consulting Contracts (Subcontractor)	2002 -2017	Under the State of Iowa Bioterrorism Needs Assessment and Analysis, State of Missouri Emergency Operations Plans, and State of Missouri Homeland Security Assessment and Technical Consultant contracts, Seagull, as a subcontractor, has provided assistance with development of emergency operations plans and annexes; assessment and analysis of state-wide emergency response capabilities for responses to incidents involving chemical, biological, radiological, and nuclear (CBRN) agents or Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD); and management of grants issued by the Missouri Emergency Management Agency.
Missouri Environmental Data Collection (Prime Contractor)	2009 - 2014	Under the Missouri Environmental Data Collection contract, Seagull provides technical support to the Missouri Department of Natural Resources (MDNR) with various sampling and survey activities at approximately 420 sites located throughout the State of Missouri. Activities include low-flow surveys at wastewater treatment facilities, biological and chemical sampling at Missouri streams.
City of Springfield Brownfields Consultant (Prime Contractor)	2009 – 2014 2014- 2019	Under the Brownfields Consultant contract, Seagull provides technical support to the City of Springfield, Missouri, with Phase I and II targeted brownfield assessments, in accordance with American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) protocols.
Various Local Government and Private Contracts (Prime Contractor)	1999-Current	Seagull conducts site investigations, compliance inspections, lead and asbestos abatements, and environmental site assessments (ESA) for various clients. The scope of work for these activities includes development of work plans and health and safety plans; conducting field investigations and testing; installation of groundwater monitoring wells; installation of temporary monitoring wells and soil borings, using Direct Push Technology equipment; and preparation of reports.